

1 Rule 45. Pre-disposition reports and social studies.

2 (a) Unless waived by the court, a pre-disposition report shall be prepared in all proceedings
3 which result in the filing of a petition. The pre-disposition report shall be deemed waived, unless 4 otherwise ordered, in all traffic, fish and game and boating cases, and other bailable offenses.
5 The report shall conform to the requirements in the Code of Judicial Administration.

6 (b) In delinquency cases, investigation of the minor and family for the purpose of preparing 7 the pre-disposition report shall not be commenced before the allegations have been proven 8 without the consent of the parties.

9 (c) The pre-disposition report shall not be submitted to or considered by the judge before the 10 adjudication of the charges or allegations to which it pertains. If no pre-disposition report has 11 been prepared or completed before the dispositional hearing, or if the judge wishes additional 12 information not contained in the report, the dispositional hearing may be continued for a 13 reasonable time to a date certain.

14 (d) For the purpose of determining proper disposition of the child and for the purpose of 15 establishing the fact of neglect or dependency, written reports and other material relating to the 16 child's mental, physical, and social history and condition may be received in evidence and may 17 be considered by the court along with other evidence. The court may require that the person who 18 wrote the report or prepared the material appear as a witness if the person is reasonably 19 available.

20 (e) The pre-dispositional report and social studies shall be provided by the author to the 21 minor's counsel, the prosecuting attorney, the guardian ad litem, and counsel for the parent, 22 guardian or custodian of the minor at least two days prior to the dispositional hearing. When the 23 minor or the minor's parent, guardian or custodian are not represented by counsel, the court may 24 limit inspection of reports by the minor or the minor's parent, guardian or custodian if the court 25 determines it is in the best interest of the minor to do so.
